

ARCHENO
VISITS

MAEC Museo
dell'Accademia Etrusca
e della Città di Cortona

“LE COLLEZIONI DEL LOUVRE A CORTONA.
Gli Etruschi dall’Arno al Tevere”
from 05 March al 03 July 2011

To celebrate its 20th anniversary, winery La Braccasca, along with MAEC presents the project of the “Archeno visits”. La Braccasca opens its doors to the public, with the occasion of the extraordinary exhibit of some important Etruscan pieces from the Louvre Museum and exposed at the MAEC.

An educational and emotional path, a guided tour to discover the traditions and the territory, which starts with the observation of the finds exposed at the MAEC, especially involving the participants to understand the Etruscan ritual of the feast. After visiting a shuttle will take participants to La Braccasca, where an exciting journey through the tasting of the wines produced on the estate and a tour of the winery, will guide the visitor into the history of the ritual of drinking wine from ancient times to today.

Archeno Visits
from 26 March to 2 July every Saturday (except 9 and 23 April)

Schedule:

- meeting at Cortona - MAEC ticket office - at 10.00 am
- visit the exhibition “LE COLLEZIONI DEL LOUVRE A CORTONA. Gli Etruschi dall’Arno al Tevere”
- guided tour inside the museum with explanations on the rites of banqueting in the Etruscan world
- transfer with bus to La Braccasca
- tour of the winery and wine-tasting that will guide you through the discovery of Etruscan agriculture and wine-making
- return to Cortona at 1.00 pm

Price: 25 Euros per person

Time: 3 hours

Minimum 15 people in each group. The visit will be in Italian and English.

Bookings should be made by the Thursday before.

Booking: Terretrusche - 0575/606887 - ticketing@terretrusche.com

Information: MAEC: www.cortonamaec.org - 0575/637235